The War Between the Popes

In Cesena, the new Rosas work that was premiered in Avignon this year, Anna Teresa De Keersmaeker, together with Bern Schmelzer and his Grandelavoix ensemble, brings back to the darkness of the fourteenth century, both literally and figuratively.

You could see Cesena as a companion piece to La Prima Donna, which was also performed in Avignon. Both productions are set in the fourteenth century, but they differ in their musical style. Cesena features a more somber and introspective atmosphere, while La Prima Donna is more vibrant and colorful.

The War Between the Popes is a new Rosas work that was premiered in Avignon this year. It is set in the fourteenth century and explores the political and religious conflicts of the time. The production features a cast of characters that includes the papacy, the Inquisition, and various political figures of the period.

DANCE // Grandelavoix teams up with Rosas

In Cesena, the new Rosas work that was premiered in Avignon this year, Anna Teresa De Keersmaeker, together with Bern Schmelzer and his Grandelavoix ensemble, brings back to the darkness of the fourteenth century, both literally and figuratively.

You could see Cesena as a companion piece to La Prima Donna, which was also performed in Avignon. Both productions are set in the fourteenth century, but they differ in their musical style. Cesena features a more somber and introspective atmosphere, while La Prima Donna is more vibrant and colorful.

The War Between the Popes is a new Rosas work that was premiered in Avignon this year. It is set in the fourteenth century and explores the political and religious conflicts of the time. The production features a cast of characters that includes the papacy, the Inquisition, and various political figures of the period.

You could see Cesena as a companion piece to La Prima Donna, which was also performed in Avignon. Both productions are set in the fourteenth century, but they differ in their musical style. Cesena features a more somber and introspective atmosphere, while La Prima Donna is more vibrant and colorful.

The War Between the Popes is a new Rosas work that was premiered in Avignon this year. It is set in the fourteenth century and explores the political and religious conflicts of the time. The production features a cast of characters that includes the papacy, the Inquisition, and various political figures of the period.

You could see Cesena as a companion piece to La Prima Donna, which was also performed in Avignon. Both productions are set in the fourteenth century, but they differ in their musical style. Cesena features a more somber and introspective atmosphere, while La Prima Donna is more vibrant and colorful.

The War Between the Popes is a new Rosas work that was premiered in Avignon this year. It is set in the fourteenth century and explores the political and religious conflicts of the time. The production features a cast of characters that includes the papacy, the Inquisition, and various political figures of the period.

You could see Cesena as a companion piece to La Prima Donna, which was also performed in Avignon. Both productions are set in the fourteenth century, but they differ in their musical style. Cesena features a more somber and introspective atmosphere, while La Prima Donna is more vibrant and colorful.

The War Between the Popes is a new Rosas work that was premiered in Avignon this year. It is set in the fourteenth century and explores the political and religious conflicts of the time. The production features a cast of characters that includes the papacy, the Inquisition, and various political figures of the period.